Read pages 283-297

After reading the information you will create a Bibliography. Your bibliography should include the titles, authors, publishers, copyright dates and short summaries of ten developmentally appropriate children's books that you have used or would like to use with children. Each book should support a different topic related to children's lives and challenges. Subjects you need to include in your bibliography are:

Cultural or linguistic group identity

Gender Identity

Children with Special Needs

Separation/Divorce/Remarriage/Family Structures

Phases of the cycle of life from human reproduction to death

Other topic that reflect the children and families with whom you work

Please include a picture of the book with your a summary.
