WEEK OF MAY 4TH

Hello Culinary 1 Students,

Please download or print out the study guide that is attached to this email. This week & next week we are going to shift the focus to the ServSafe Certification test.

This week, you will be required to take this test twice. You MAY use your notes this week. You have five minutes for each question, so please take your time & do your best. You will earn two grades this week for this practice test.

Next week, I will adjust the time on the test. You don't need to show me your score, I will have access to it.

When you are ready to take the test, please do the following below:
