

STANDARDS IN ESSENTIAL NEED OF SUPPORT PARENT RESOURCES

The Indiana Department of Education (IDOE) identified the Indiana Academic Standards in essential need of support for mathematics and English/language arts for kindergarten through grade eight. This document provides information regarding these standards and resources to help parents best support their students.

What are standards in essential need of support (SENS)?

SENS are important content and skills where students are performing significantly below expectations. SENS are updated every year based on student performance on assessments.
